COMPLICATIONS
NOT EXPECTED

Anglo-Japanese Alliance Is Declared Not a Counter To League of Nations.

(Correspondence of Associated Press)
TOKIO, June 26.—The Anglo-Japanese alliance does not run counter to the league of nations, wrote Premier Hara, favoring a repeal of the pact in the course of a contribution to the current issue of the Japanese Diplomatic Review.

Mr. Hara declared that the English alliance is intended for the preservation of peace and order in the far east with no particular country its objective.

The Japanese were determined to improve the relations with China and to develop the rich natural resources of China. It was a good thing, he thought that the United States was taking an economic interest in China, but while the interest of the United States was economical to Japan the relations with China was really a question of life and death for the nation. He hoped this fact would be appreciated in a sympathetic way by the American people.

Concerning Siberia the premier wrote:

"The original object of Japan's expedition to Siberia was to aid the Czechoslovaks. In the meantime, however, Siberia has undergone serious upheavals, endangering the life and property of Japanese residents and disturbing peace and order in Manchuria and Mongolia. This is the reason why Japan cannot evacuate the country as soon as she expected.
However, when peace and order have been restored in Siberia safeguarding the life and property of Japanese residents, and ensuring freedom of communications, the Japanese troops will be withdrawn, with the repatriation of the Czechoslovaks."

CAMPAIGNS RUN
ON AN ECONOMY
BASIS THIS YEAR

(Correspondence of Associated Press) CHICAGO, Aug. 2.—Presidential campaigns this year are going to be run on a thrift basis, in the opinion of several members of the senate committee which has been investigating pre-convention expenditures of the various candidates who sought nomination by one or the other of the major parties.

Senators Kenyon, Republican, of Iowa, Reed, Democrat, of Missouri, and Spencer, Republican, of Missouri, all declare that the campaigns this year will be conducted with more care and consideration for the financial end than ever before.

The chairman of the senate investigating committee, Mr. Kenyon, said the pre-convention disclosures made through the committee and the fact that it was instructed by congress also to investigate presidential campaigns, will make the political managers careful of their expenditures and not disbursement which might cause unfavorable comment, even from opponents, will be made.

"I don't mean to say that anyone is afraid of the committee," said Senator Kenyon, "but the politicians realize that their expenditures are going to be scrutinized carefully and consequently they are going to cut out many of the usual items."

BROTHER WILL
AVENGE PASHA

Murder in Paris of Albanian Diplomat Arouses Ire in
"Blood Brother"

(Correspondence of Associated Press) PARIS, July 11. Vengeance for the assassination of Essad Pasha, head of the Albanian delegation here, is being quietly awaited by a "blood brother" of the Balkan leader, according to a circumstantial story by a French writer, published in the Revue.

This man, now rich and influential in France, the story goes, was one of several poor young men who 30 years ago met Essad Pasha then known as the "Black Dagger of Abdul Hamid," in Constantinople when he crowded into a card game and insisted upon playing with them. Fearing Essad Pasha, they protested they could not play with him, but he insisted, emphasizing it by placing his revolver on the table as a threat.

To meet this, the young teacher put down his dagger, poisoned, he said, Essad Pasha showed his surprise when his pleasure.

"Young man," he exclaimed, "this is the first time anyone has dared defy me. Men like you are rare."

Essad Pasha took his own dagger opened a vein in his wrist and also in that of the young man, each sucked a few drops of blood from the other and they became "blood brothers," according to Albanian customs, sworn to avenge each other's deaths.

"I am ready," this brother now is quoted as saying, "to keep my oath, but I have confidence that French courts will make it unnecessary for me to interfere."

Essad Pasha, appeared on the spot for shooting down Essad Pasha as the latter was entering his automobile in the downtown district recently, is awaiting trial. He was a student who posed as the avenger of Albanian wrongs.

SUNSHINE MACHINE
GOOD FOR TONOPAH

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal.
Aug. 2.—An autographic sunshine recorder, designed to measure the relative amounts and equality of sunshine at different parts of the globe, being perfected here by Harold H. Hampton, an instructor in the botany department of the university.
The instrument will be used, Hampton announces, for the purpose of measuring light in connection with the manufacture and production of cottons. It will also be of value in determining whether the climatic conditions in various places is favorable to the growth of certain plants.

DRESSED BEEF
FLUCTUATIONS
ARE LIFTED

(Correspondence of Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 3.— Unusual fluctuations in the price of dressed beef occurred during the first six months of this year, says a report at the United States bureau of Markets. Starting with a top price of $21 for good grade beef in January, sharp and erratic price changes marked trading throughout the period, with the low top price of $17 recorded during the last week in May and the high point $21, made on June 23, an increase of $4, a hundred pounds in 30 days.

A series of unavoidable events most of them resulting from abnormal conditions produced by the war, contributed to the phenomenal price trends, the report says. Among the principal disturbing influences described are periodical releases by the war department of surplus stocks of beef in an effort to reduce living costs, higher stocking and feeder markets, high freight loads, friction of producers' efforts to improve cattle production for war needs and anticipated foreign demands, labor problems, decreased transportation facilties, embarrassing unsettled financial credit and exchange conditions, decrease in beef exports, financial crisisis, restrictions, declines in prices of hides, tallow and other animal by-products, and depressed or spasmodic consumption of meat.

In fact, the report says, every possible economic factor incidental to a period of reconstruction and vapable of disturbing market conditions for those products of the farm and range had free and almost unlimited action.

Prices of livestock in the Chicago market and those paid for dressed carcasses taken from New York quotations from 10 days to two weeks after the live cattle transactions also showed wide fluctuations, the report asserts. The difference of $2.25 per 100 pounds between prices for good beef steers and the corresponding grades of dressed carcasses in January was widened until it stood at $14.50 during the closing days of June. For the same period the difference between the low price of medium steers in the land and in the carcasses had advanced from $6.25 to $10.75.

REFUGEES FLOOD
HISTORICAL CITY

Greeks and Armenians Fill Is-mid to Escape Turk Nationalist Onrush.

(Correspondence of Associated Press) ISMID, Turkey, June 14. With the onrush of Turkish nationalism toward the Gulf of Ismid this historic old city was filled to overflowing with Greek and Armenian refugees, who were being shipped off to Anatolia thence as fast as transportation was available. Tales of the bleeding refugees recalled the horrors through which the local Christians passed in 1917, when all the Armenian section was burned, massacred and deported after slaughter and other heinous treatment.

This ancient city, which was called Nicomedia in biblical times, was the capital of Bithynia and under the Roman empire became one of the most famous of Asia Minor. History described it in his letters to Trajan as having a "great house, an aqueduct, a forum and many temples and other public buildings. Diocletian, made Ismid his residence and began the persecutions of Christians which the emperor continued when they came into possession in the fourteenth century.

Population Swelled.
Now its population has been swelled by crowds fleeing before the nationalist advance and by British troops camped among the ruins of the old Roman and Byzantine walls in the mountains which now bristle with barbed wire entanglements and are converted into machine gun shelters.

Shakh Turkish soldiers, the remains of the sultan's army which remained loyal to the Constantinople government, killed Greeks and Armenians, dragged Armenian carts through the streets and made ready for the forces of Mustafa Kemal which occupy the head of the Gulf of Is-mid on three sides.

Since the Hongkong was written the Turkish nationalists have made several attempts to take Ismid but were defeated by British and Turkish government troops.
